Giants in Virtual Tie for First Place—Ruth Slams Out "54th," Equals Home Run Record

Toney Humbles Dodgers, 6-2; Burns's Triple Clinches Game

Cadore Batted Out Without Retiring Man in First Inning; Ruether Lacks Control, and McGraw's Men Are Now Within Quarter Point of Lead

The Giants are now virtually tied for first place with the Pirates in one of the most keenly contested pennant races the National League has ever known. This was brought about by the victory of McGraw's players over the faltering Dodgers at the Polo Grounds yesterday by a score of 6 to 2 and the defeat of the Pittsburgh clan at the hands of the Chi-

The Dodgers paired hits in the fifth and again in the seventh, but in neither of these innings were they able to score. Toney's control was wellnigh perfect. He issued only one base on balls, but this did no damage at all.

Leon Cadore, who started in the box for Brooklyn, was given the gate in the first inning after Burns and Bancroft thad singled in succession. Southpaw Wa'ter Ruether then assumed the pitching burden for Brooklyn, and alanough he was found for only seven hits, most of these played a prominent part in the Giants' tallies.

George Burns led his mates at the bat with a triple and two singles in four official times at bat, and "Irish" Meusel, who is hitting very well these days, was close behind with a double and two singles in four official times at bat, and "Irish" Meusel, who is hitting very well these days, was close behind with a double and two singles in four official times at bat, and "Irish" Meusel, who is hitting very well these days, was close behind with a double and two singles in four official times at bat, and "Irish" Meusel, who is hitting very well these days, was close behind with a double and two singles in four official times at bat, and "Irish" Meusel, who is hitting very well these days, was close behind with a double and two singles in four official times at bat, and "Irish" Meusel so of the box, but Young also walked.

Three Errors Net One Run
Aided by three errors the Dodgers jammed a run across in the second inning, but, with the bases filled, they were checked by a fast double play. Wheat, the first batter, was safe on a fumble by Rawlings. Myers beat out a roller to Frisch. Wheat scored and Myers reached third when Frisch made a wild throw to first on Kilduff's grounder. Frisch also made a high peg on a bounder by Krueger, and the besses were filled.

The dust is flying down the September stretch of baseball again. Not quite as lustily as it was thirteen years ago, when the Giants, Cubs and Pirates, in one league, were badly knotted, and while Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago and St. Louis in the other were hardly more than a game apart. ### Yankees Maul Three Pitchers In Philadelphia

League Leaders Win by 14-5 in a Game Featured Four - Base Clouts

By Charles A. Taylor PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9 .- Cornelius McGillicuddy's Athletics were massa cred here this afternoon by the Yankees, the score being 14 to 5. It was a tragic but historic day for Quakertown, for Babe Ruth, with one of the mightiest drives of his career, equaled his 1920 home run record.

In the fourth inning, with Peckin-paugh roosting on first base, the Babe smashed the ball over the left center field fence into Somerset Street. Never before has so long a hit been made at Shike Park, and the reception accorded the Swat Sultan as he jaunted around the bases was of the most rousing sort.

Home runs were pientiful during the one-sided game. Tillie Walker twice put the ball into the left field bleachers, and our own Wally Pipp hit one over the right field fence.

Bob Shawkey had a lovely time subduing the opposing batsmen. They were fairly eating out of Bob's hand until the ex-gob was safely intrenched behind an overwhelming lead.

Sixteen Hits for Yankees

As for the Pathetic pitchers, they were clouted for sixteen hits. The victims were Ollie Naylor, Buck Freeman jr., and Tim Keefe jr., and their offerings all looked similar to the batting eyes of the Gothamites.

The fruitful fourth, in which the Yankees did most of their damage, had an uneventful start, Wally Pipp, the first Yankee batter, being tossed out by McCann. Aaron Ward had better luck, singling to deep short. McNally put Ward on second with a safe blow to right. Schang walked, and the bases were fully occupied.

Shawkey was equal to the occasion by singling through the pitcher's box, scoring Ward. McNally also tallied when Dykes threw the ball over J. Walker's head. Schang counted on Miller's out, short to first. Peck hit Tie for Homer Honors Tillie Walker and Bob Meusel are now tied as home runners with nine-teen each.

Miller hit the first ball pitched by Naylor to right center for two bases but Peck, Ruth and Meusel were un-able to bring him home.

Double plays squelched the Mackmen in the first and second. McNally, Ward and Pipp figured in the first one and Peck and Ward in the second.

Emmett McCann tried his best to help the Yanks along in the third

We've something more than all-wool to crow over! Prices surprisingly mod-

Not in years have prices loomed so attractive for fine quality.

Not in years, too. have we been so early and so abundantly prepared.

Suits, overcoats. Hats, shoes, fixings. Sporting Goods. Boys and young men outfitting for school and college find we've everything they'll need all Winter long.

Final Sale Season-End Suits Clearance of Suits

Now just one word about 24.50

They were made at the beginning of the season. We did not buy them at an upset price from some manufacturer in difficulties. They were not shipped in here to be sold off for what they would bring. We never buy clothes to sell at a sale.

These are regular Weber and Heilbroner Clothes, styled by us from patterns and weaves of our own choosing, made according to our fixed standards, and reduced in price so that they will all be sold in a few days, and every customer and his wife delighted with his purchase. $65 to $95
